ORDER ON TRINITY HEALTHSHARE, INC.'S ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO EXTEND PROPOSED SCHEDULING ORDER DEADLINE

Trinity Healthshare, Inc. ("Trinity") has filed an Assented-to Motion to Extend Proposed Scheduling Order Deadline ("Motion"). In the Motion, Trinity requests that the deadline for the parties to submit a proposed scheduling order be extended. In particular, Trinity requests that the deadline be extended to seven days after the Merrimack Superior Court issues an order on the legal claims it is scheduled to hear on August 11, 2020. Trinity represents that Mary Bleier, Esquire, the Department's Compliance and Enforcement Counsel, assents to the Motion.

For the reasons set forth in the Motion, I find good cause exists to GRANT Trinity's Motion and extend the parties' deadline to file a proposed scheduling order. Accordingly, the parties shall confer and file a proposed scheduling timeline with the Department seven days after the Merrimack Superior Court issues its order on the legal claims scheduled for argument on August 11, 2020. The proposed scheduling timeline shall, in conformance with the Order issued in this matter on May 26, 2020, include a proposed timeline for rescheduling the hearing, anticipated preliminary hearings, and filing deadlines.

SO ORDERED.
